

KIRSCH // Press

Kirsch's name is a tribute to her grandmother, whose last name she proudly carries as a source of inspiration. Her grandmother's influence resonates in her music, shaping her passion and approach to creating memorable sets.

Kirsch has developed a unique musical style that blends groovy house, 90s house, driving piano riffs, soulful vocals, and energetic liquid house. Influenced by the sounds of the 80s and 90s and distinctive synthesizer tones, her sets are dynamic and versatile.

With years of experience dancing in clubs worldwide, Kirsch has a deep understanding of how to gauge and respond to the energy of the dance floor, creating sets that ignite wild musical dreams.

She played her first party in 2022 and has since performed at renowned clubs such as Watergate, Renate, Münze and RSO in Berlin. Cova Santa on Ibiza. In Munich at Blitz & Rote Sonne and on Festivals like Garbicz and Feel.

Her performances are characterized by glamour and high energy, with each track carefully chosen to build on the previous one, creating an atmosphere of ecstasy and euphoria. Despite her focus on creating a sonic journey, Kirsch remains committed to engaging and surprising her audience and always ending up with an unexpected twist.

Soundcloud // Website // Instagram // Resident Advisor